Dependent on the duration of the mobility and visa requirements. Please see https://studyabroad.reading.ac.uk/incoming/apply/exchange-students/ for full requirements.

Please note: language requirements may be subject to change in future academic years.

3. Nomination & Application Process

- Exchange partner advisers must nominate students via SAO's RISIS Nomination Portal. You can expect to receive the link to the Nomination Portal in:
 - March, ahead of the September intake (Semester 1 and Full Academic Year)
 - August, ahead of the February intake (Semester 2)
- The Nomination Portal will ask for the following information about each student:
 - Title (Miss, Mr, Mx, etc.)
 - First and middle names (as per passport)
 - Family name (as per passport)
 - Date of birth (in the DD/MM/YYYY format)
 - Home university email address
- Partner university colleagues are required to set a temporary password for each student nominated via the Nomination Portal. Please do not provide your student(s) with the temporary password: the RISIS system will reset it automatically prior to the Study Abroad Office providing your nominated student(s) with application instructions.
- Once a student is nominated, the Nomination Portal will issue an email receipt to the exchange partner adviser. This will include the student's 8 digit University of Reading student ID number, which will begin with a 3. SAO will give the ID number to the students with their application instructions: please do not give it to the students yourself.

- You can only nominate one student at a time in the Nomination Portal. Please do not click back at any point, and please follow instructions to close windows if asked.
- Once students have been nominated and SAO has assessed their nominations, SAO will issue application instructions from:
 - April, for September intake students (Semester 1 and Full Academic Year)
 - October, for February intake students (Semester 2)
- Application steps:
 - Applicants complete the online application, confirming personal details supplied by the exchange partner adviser, adding additional personal details, and submitting provisional module choices.
 - Applicants must have their completed application form checked and signed by the exchange partner adviser. Digital and wet signatures accepted.
 - Applicants must obtain a digital copy of their most recent home university transcript, which must be in English.
 - Applicants may need to supply English language certification, dependent on the enrolment option they are applying for and their visa requirements.
 - All application materials must be sent as PDF copies by email to studyabroad@reading.ac.uk. Physical documents must be clearly scanned with a scanner, rather than photographed with a smartphone or camera.
 - Upon receipt, SAO will check each application, acknowledge receipt, identify and inform applicants of missing materials (if needed), and begin processing of the application.
 - Applicants will receive a decision on their application from SAO, normally within 15 working days of them submitting their application.
 - If accepted to join us, applicants will receive more information from SAO about preparing to join us and Welcome activities in the period prior to them joining us.
